The International Conference for Training and Organizational Development TOD'26

TOD'26
International Conference for Training and Organizational Development

Fady Labib is a senior Human Resources executive with more than 25 years of experience in human resources management, organizational development, and people strategy. He currently serves as the Head of Human Resources – North Africa Cluster at DHL Global Forwarding, leading HR operations across Egypt, Libya, Morocco, and Algeria.

Throughout his career, Fady has developed extensive expertise in talent acquisition, performance management, compensation and benefits, employee engagement, learning and development, HR policy implementation, and organizational development. As a strategic HR Business Partner, he has played a key role in driving business performance through effective people management and workforce transformation.

A strong advocate for Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging (DEIB), Fady serves as the DEIB Champion for the North Africa Cluster, promoting inclusive workplace cultures that foster innovation, collaboration, and sustainable organizational success.

Committed to continuous professional development, he earned his Master's Degree in Human Resources in 2009 and has been an active contributor to Egypt's HR community since 2012. He is also an Authorized Instructor at The American University in Cairo (AUC), delivering professional learning programs in Diversity & Inclusion and sharing practical HR insights that bridge academic knowledge with real-world business applications.
